Soleurre, Nov. 18. Laſt Thurſday Night a Fire broke out at Orvin near Bienne, which deſtroyed great Part of the Town. Two or three Perſons periſhed in the Flames; and the Inhabitants in general are in great Diſtreſs.

Stockholm, Nov. 20. Their Majeſties and the whole Court continue at Ulrichsdall, from whence the King came twice laſt Week to aſſiſt at the Deliberations of the Senate. His Majeſty has promoted Rear Admiral Ankerkrantz, to be Vice Admiral of the Fleet of this Kingdom. The Ships that have been built this Year in our Ports for the Uſe of France and Spain, will not be ſent away till Spring. Notwithſtanding the greateſt Diligence has been uſed to diſcover the Author or Authors of the counterfeit Bank Notes that have been circulated in ſeveral of the principal Towns in this Kingdom for ſome Time paſt, they have not as yet been able to diſcover either of them, and 'tis ſtill thought by many People, that they were firſt counterfeited in Finland, and afterwards brought from thence.

Frankfort, Nov. 20. The Dutcheſs of Saxe Meinungen was Yeſterday Morning ſafely delivered of a Prince, who was baptized the ſame Afternoon by the Name of Auguſte-Frederic-Charles-Guillaume, the Kings of Poland and Pruſſia, and the Landgraves of Heſſe-Caſſel and Heſſe-Philipſthall ſtanding Godfathers by their Proxy the Count de Degenfeldt.

Copenhagen, Nov. 22. The Queen being near her Time, they have drawn out the Artillery in Readineſs to pronounce to the People her Majeſty's happy Delivery. Laſt Monday the Crew of the Three Princeſſes, bound for Tranquebar, were reviewed by the proper Officers, and ſent on board, and ſhe is now ready to ſail with the firſt fair Wind. A Man of War of 60 Guns, and a Frigat of 18, were launched here on Saturday laſt.

Vienna, Nov. 23. The Pruſſian Envoy has had ſeveral Conferences with our Miniſters, within theſe few Days paſt, upon the Affair of regulating the Commerce between the Subjects of the two Courts, and 'tis ſaid that Affair is upon the Point of being adjuſted to their mutual Satisfaction. As the Weather continues very fine in this Country, their Imperial Majeſties intend to ſtay at Schonbron till the End of this Month, when they propoſe coming here for the Winter. On Monday laſt the States of Lower Auſtria met, and ſent a Deputation to Schonbrun, when Prince Trautſon, at the Head of that Deputation, received, from the Hands of her Imperial Majeſty, the Propoſitions upon which they are to deliberate.

Dreſden, Nov. 25. They write from Warſaw, that his Poliſh Majeſty has conferred on Count Mniſzeck, Great Marſhal of the Court in that Kingdom, the Staroſty of Bialacerkiew. We are informed by the ſame Letters, that a Gang of Thieves broke into the Church belonging to the Convent of the Dominicans at Poſnania, in the Night between the 12th and 13th Inſtant, and carried off ſix large Chandeliers, a Crucifix, and ſeveral Vaſes, all of Silver.

Berlin, Nov. 26. The King has appointed M. Vogel, High Bailiff of Egeln, to be one of the Counſellors of the Court, and has likewiſe made him a conſiderable Preſent, in Conſideration of the great Improvements he has made in the raiſing of Mulberry Trees, which he has done in very great Numbers in the Dutchy of Magdebourg. Yeſterday Major General Meyerink, Commander of this City, cauſed a large Sum of Money to be diſtributed, by his Majeſty's Order, to the Widows and Orphans of ſuch Soldiers as belonged to the Regiments in this Garriſon, and were killed during the late War.
